

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Mr. Daryal Batibay
Senior Advisor to the Prime Minister
Yeni Basbakanlik
Bakanliklar, Ankara
TURKEY

Dear Daryal:

We are very pleased that the Republic of Turkey, acting through the Office of the Senior Advisor to the Prime Minister, has engaged Arnold & Porter (the "Firm") for a period of three months to provide advisory services to it in connection with the selection of one or more public relations and/or government relations firms to provide services in certain activities in the United States and other countries. The purpose of this letter is to set forth our mutual understanding as to the basis on which our fees and related expenses will be charged with respect to this matter.

1. Fees. We agree to provide our services for a period of three months effective January 1, 1994, at the rate of $25,000 per month. Our charges will include the time of attorneys and, where applicable, other professionals and paraprofessionals, and expenses incurred on your behalf except any expenses incurred, with your approval, in connection with international travel, for which we will be separately reimbursed.

2. Consultant. At your request, we will retain, on your behalf, Harriet Mouchley-Weiss of Strategy XXI Group, to assist in providing the advisory services described herein for a flat fee of $10,000 plus an amount not in excess of $2,000 for overseas traveling expenses, all of which will be paid to her in addition to the amounts referred to in Item 1, above.

3. Statements for Fees and Expenses. On a regular basis, generally every month, the Firm will send you a statement covering fee charges and expenses incurred to date, providing all such reasonable detail as you may require. All such statements are due and

If you have any questions about the terms of the engagement, as described above, I hope you will feel free to raise them with me as soon as possible and you will feel equally free to raise promptly with me any questions you have about our statements. If the terms of the engagement are acceptable to you, I would appreciate it if you would sign and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter, evidencing the Republic's agreement to these terms.

Once again, let me say how pleased we are that you have engaged Arnold & Porter in this matter.

Sincerely,

Paul S. Berger
